

The Womens Bella Scrub Top combines modern design with high-performance NanoStretch fabric, built for professionals working long, fast-paced shifts. Enhanced with graphene, it delivers superior strength, breathability, and natural antimicrobial protection to help you feel fresh all day. A soft rayon-spandex blend provides lasting stretch and comfort, while recycled polyester supports a more sustainable uniform choice. Finished with a sleek, contemporary female fit, Bella moves with you – ideal for active professionals across multiple industries.
